1. COMMON ANALYSIS

1.1. Wine producers in countries/territories of the Western Balkan region

There are currently 794 officially registered wineries in the Western Balkans region. The largest number of wineries is registered in Serbia, 445 wineries, which represents 56% of the total number of wineries in the region (Map 1, Graph 1).

 This designation is without prejudice to positions on status, and is in line with UNSCR 1244 and the ICJ Opinion on the Kosovo Declaration of Independence*

1.2. Wineries with woman winemakers

Within the total number of wineries in the Western Balkans region, in 72 wineries women manage wine production, i.e. women are the owners of wineries, which represents about 9% of all wineries in the region. The largest number of wineries with female staff is in Serbia (47 wineries), which represents about 10,6% of the total number of wineries managed by women in the region.

1.3. Grape and wine producers' associations

In the countries/territories of the Western Balkans region, there are mostly national and some regional/local associations. However, the tradition of uniting grape and wine producers, as well as actors in viticulture and winemaking sector is the most developed in Serbia, where there are 60 national, regional and local associations (Map 3, Graph 3).

National and regional wine festivals, fairs, and wine events in Bosnia and Herzegovina

No.	Festival/Fair	Place and provisional dates for 2022	Short description
1.	Sarajevo Wine Fest	Sarajevo; 2nd week of November	In 2022, the 17th Sarajevo Wine Fest is organized. The festival takes place as part of the Sarajevo Wine Weekend, which is promoted as an international festival of wine and gastronomy. A relatively large event in Sarajevo, usually with significant media coverage.
2.	BLAŽ Enology	Međugorje; Last week of August or first week of September	Festival with a 5-year tradition, organized basically for the presentation and promotion of Žilavka and Blatina wines. The festival usually has accompanying events (gastronomic offer, round tables, sommelier schools, etc.).
3.	Salon Žilavke	Trebinje; Middle of August	Festival organized by the Association of Winegrowers and Winemakers of Eastern Herzegovina "Vinos". It is held in the premises of the Wine Gallery in Trebinje (Vukoje Winery) and is basically dedicated to the presentation and promotion of Žilavka wine from all over Herzegovina. Between 25 and 30 wine producers usually appear at the festival.
4.	Mostarski sajam	Mostar; 2nd week of March	The largest general international fair event in Bosnia and Herzegovina with a long tradition. Wine producers, mostly from Bosnia and Herzegovina, but also from the countries of the region, usually participate in the fair, by group or individual rental of fair stands.
5.	Wine Garden Fest	Mostar; Last week of October	New, urban, wine festival with many accompanying contents (concerts, painting exhibitions, stand up performances, etc.). Mostly limited to local (Herzegovinian) wine producers.
